DESTINATION GUIDE

Several venues offer special discounts and some are only open during a part of the program period – you are encouraged to call them for details before planning your trip.

Need transportation to and from the station once you reach your desired destination? Some school districts may be able to meet your need using their buses with certain limitations. Ask your transportation director or call the school district at your destination for more information.

Check the Study Guide (on the preceding page) for information about the letter symbols.

ANAHEIM

The Anaheim Amtrak station is a staffed station located near the Anaheim Stadium parking lot at 2150 E. Katella.

For information about attractions and special events in the city, contact the Anaheim/Orange County Convention and Visitor Bureau at (714) 765-8888 or visit www.anaheimoc.org.

BURBANK

The Burbank Amtrak station is located adjacent to historic Bob Hope Burbank Airport is an unstaffed station. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Van Nuys.

CAMARILLO (C)(H)

The Camarillo Amtrak station is unstaffed and is located at 30 Lewis Road. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Oxnard.

Historic Camarillo Ranch (C)(H) is located at 201 Camarillo Ranch Road – about a fifteen-minute walk from the Camarillo Amtrak station. Once the center of a working 10,000-acre ranch, the current 4½ acre property features docent-led tours of the Adolfo Camarillo House Museum (an 1892 Victorian home), the barn and stables. Bring a sack lunch and enjoy the tree shaded picnic area, expansive lawns and garden areas. Restrooms are available. There is an admission fee and reservations are required. For more information call (805) 389-8182 or visit their website at www.ci.camarillo.ca.us/cultural/cityweb.html

CARPINTERIA (C)(H)(S)

The Carpinteria Amtrak station is an unstaffed station located at 475 Linden Avenue. There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Santa Barbara.

Carpinteria State Beach (S) is located less than ½ mile from the station at 5361 6th Street. It features the finest examples of inner tidal life and is one of a few easily accessible tidal pools in California. A fee may be charged for ranger-led tours. Advanced reservations for access to the area are required. Group size is limited for specific activities and swimming and wading is not recommended due to unpredictable conditions. A lifeguard is available for an additional fee. For more information about specific activities, including volunteer service projects, call (805) 684-7487. For general information call (805) 684-2811.

The Carpinteria Valley Historical Museum (C)(H) is located about 6 blocks from the station at 956 Maple Avenue. Exhibits reflect the three main cultures that settled the area: Chumash Indians, the Spanish and Mexican period, and the American pioneers. Reservations are required for groups. Call (805) 684-3112 for more information.

The Salt Marsh Nature Park (S) is a wetlands park located about 3 blocks from the station. The entrance is at the intersection of Ash Avenue and 3rd Street. The park is home to more than 20 rare plants and animals, some of which are endangered. Docent-guided programs are available and reservations are required for tours. FILLMORE (AG)(C)(E)(H)(S)

The Fillmore Amtrak Thruway bus stop is unstaffed, located in front of the International House of Pancakes at 718 Ventura Street (junction of California Highways 23 and 126). There are no ticket sales; the nearest station offering these services is in Oxnard. Restaurant staff should not be expected to provide details of Amtrak train or Thruway bus schedules.

The Fillmore & Western Railway Company features an antique full-sized train that takes students, teachers and parents on an educational, historical trip back in time. During the trip, the train travels west through the 1901 trestle bridge over the seasonal Sespe River, back through a working railyard on its journey to the state run Fillmore Fish Hatchery. The State of California Fish and Wildlife Department operates the venue where literally millions of trout are grown and raised each year. Rangers demonstrate the feeding routine and occasionally a vacuum truck is seen suctioning the trout from their long, narrow canals into a truck that then transports them to local lakes and streams. Bring plenty of quarters to purchase fish food, and watch as you see a real “feeding frenzy”. Bring a sack lunch to enjoy under the trees on the grass in Central Park, which is adjacent to the railroad tracks in downtown Fillmore. An educational, informational kiosk is also in Central Park that features a video presentation on the California Condor, which are at home in the Sespe Wilderness, just north of Fillmore. Advance reservations are required for the train trip – call (805) 524-2546 or visit www.fwry.com. All aboard for fun and adventure!

For more information about attractions and special events in Fillmore, please call the Chamber of Commerce at (805) 524-0351 or visit www.fillmorechamber.org for a calendar of events.
